Dear Lizzie,

Many thanks for your email and your time on the phone yesterday.

I have been through the value of the contents of all of the rooms and using the analogy of counting everything we would take if we moved £75,000 is to the best of my knowledge and belief a good estimate. I can provide a more detailed breakdown room by room of the estimated values if required.

I will ask for an invoice in respect of our alternative accommodation for 2 weeks and send it to you as soon as possible. We are moving today.

I can also confirm that the flood of sewage was caused by Southern Water's pump station not working and I have all the evidence detailing this in the form of video evidence taken from 3 sides of the property with a view of the pump station. I am very happy to share that with you and insurers.

Many thanks for your help.

Kind regards,

Nicholas

Good afternoon, Mr Scarr,

Thank you for your time earlier today.

As discussed, due to the claim value exceeding our handling limit, we will report back to your insurers for their decision on policy liability and their instructions on how to proceed. To allow me to complete our report, please can you confirm the total value for all contents in your home.

I will also recommend payment to you, on a without prejudice basis, for 2 weeks accommodation in the local Air BnB/holiday let. I understand the charge is £144.00 per night, therefore the total payment I will recommend to you will be £2,016.00.

Please can you provide a copy of the invoice/receipt for our file once this is available.

In the meantime, whilst we await your insurers instructions, I would recommend you arrange to obtain 2 comparison quotes for repairs.

Also, as discussed, if there is a third party who may be liable for the damage, your insurers would normally try to pursue a recovery from the third party. I understand the flooding occurred due to a backup of sewage water, caused by a failure of the pumps at the nearby water pump station owned by Southern Water. Please can you provide a copy of any evidence or correspondence you may have to support a potential recovery against Southern Water, so I may share this with your insurers.

I hope the above is of assistance, however, should you have any queries please do not hesitate to contact me. My direct email address is elizabeth.turner@davies-group.com.

Kind regards,

Lizzie

Elizabeth Turner
