Good morning Nicholas

Simon and I had a productive conversation with your insurers yesterday; here are the key updates:

- Tanking
  - Insurers will be ensuring any repairs meet regulatory standards and they are following up to expedite this.
- Alternative Accommodation
  - Insurers are aware that the policy limit may be reached before you are able to move back to your property. We have made it clear that the delays in the process are the cause and therefore will be looking to them to cover any shortfall.
  - I am aware that the November payment for alternative accommodation has now been received and insurers have confirmed that the December payment will be made in a timely fashion, to ensure no further inconvenience is caused
- Sanitisation
  - Insurers have agreed the property requires a thorough clean. Items, such as clothing, bedding, and carpets will likely need to be disposed of to eliminate pathogens.

Insurers have advised that any remaining information they require, should be complete by the end of this week. This will enable finalised proposals for the remaining aspects of your claim to be agreed.

We will be checking in with insurers at the end of the week for further updates.

Kind regards
