Hi Andy,

Thanks for sending me a copy of your email to Davies.

Yes, I agree with you 100% the time has come to take this up with insurers directly.

We are now close to 20 weeks since this incident happened and we have still not been able to complete the drying and sanitisation process. It defies belief particularly when you consider the countless times you and I have been chasing.

I am very worried about Louisa. For anyone to be put under this level of strain is not acceptable, particularly someone as vulnerable as Louisa.

Best regards,

Nicholas

Good morning Natalie & Lizzie,

I write regarding the above claim for Mr & Mrs Scarr.

I called your office today to obtain an update on 3 specific areas of the claim:

1. Drying progress
2. Decontamination
3. Dual insurance

With regard to the drying progress, I am advised by Bio Response they have recommended additional strip-out to the floor. This I understand was communicated to you via your portal following their service visit last week. I submitted a strip-out estimate from Mr Scarr's contractor over the weekend and would appreciate it if you could approve the estimate without further delay. Currently drying is stalled awaiting this strip-out.

With reference to the decontamination of the property and following Mr Scarr's email detailing his wife's medical condition which was forwarded to you on 4th July 2025. I've been advised by the claims handler today that no communication has been made with insurers regarding this matter. It goes without saying that if correct and no action has been taken for nearly two weeks this is unacceptable.

Finally the issue of dual insurance which I understand needs to be considered before any further action can take place. I'm advised that your system shows no communication has taken place since Mr Scarr made you away of this at the start of the week.

We have previously advised Mrs Scarr is a vulnerable individual and I was assured more frequent reviews of the claim would be made. However this doesn't appear to be the case as I was advised an adjuster review was last undertaken on 25th June 2025!

Please confirm, without delay, what actions you will be taking to resolve these issues.

Best Regards

Andy Lyne
