Morning Nick,

I hope you're well.

I managed to make contact with Lizzie late on Friday to discuss your claim.

I pointed out that the insurer was taking too long to validate your claim and also that you were still waiting for funds for the alternative accommodation.

Lizzie has advised she will contact insurers on Monday to push a decision on the validation and also chase the agreed funds. Lizzie has advised she has some site meetings in the morning so I'm not expecting a call from her until the afternoon.

I advised Lizzie that you have asked two local trusted builders to provide costs for the reinstatement of your property.

Lizzie has asked if they would be able to undertaken the enabling/strip-out also and has asked if we could provide separate quotes from each of the contractors for enabling/strip-out and reinstatement. Are you able to arrange this or would you like me to contact the contractors?

Drying and sanitization work will be undertaken by Bio Response, unless you would prefer an alternative contractor.

I'll update you again on Monday pm once I've spoken to Lizzie.

Best regards

Andy Lyne
