■Hi Andy,

Thank you for your email. Nick has asked me to reply. He has some technical issues with his email at present but I am passing info to him.

Many thanks,

Louisa

Evening Nick,

Good to speak to you earlier.

I have spoken to Sarah this afternoon and advised her of the present position regarding the dual insurance.

As Lizzie had told us, she was reporting to insurers, so we suggest we allow them until Wednesday to decide the direction they would like to take. If no decision is made by Wednesday, we will chase Davies for a decision.

Best Regards

Andy Lyne

Dear Lizzie,

Following our conversation at the end of last month concerning the dual insurance position, I

immediately notified

Policy Expert by phone and followed up with an email confirming the situation. They have now replied, as shown below.:-

<image.png>

As you will see, they are suggesting that your team at Sainsbury's Home Insurance contact them directly with a view to receiving a 50% contribution towards the cost of the claim.

I'm very mindful of the time this is all taking — the claim has now been ongoing for nearly five months and reinstatement work has yet to begin. While it is, of course, entirely reasonable for insurers to discuss and agree matters between themselves, I do hope that this will not result in any further unnecessary or protracted delays.

If you have any further questions, please don't hesitate to let me know.

Kind regards,

Nicholas Scarr
